New Business

An update of the Campground was given, and the plan is for internet and electrical to be completed by June 1. All sites hopefully will be ready for seasonal campers to be taken in by June 1.

Chris Blaisdell had advised that they have a grant for the Ballfield upgrade but asked if there was something else in the community that we might include that is on our wish list. Councilor C. MacKinnon advised she will reach out to Randy Byrne and Jason Palmer to see whether the ballfield or rink has some ideas.

Councilor P. Milligan suggested that we should go and see the space at the Complex so we can answer questions if anyone is asking. It was agreed to try and go over and see the space soon. Mayor Ron advised that Jim MacAulay is having health issues and now is probably the time to hire a maintenance person. Craig Campbell's name was brought up as a good candidate for the job. After a lengthy discussion it was decided to approach Craig to see if he was interested in the position.

Next on the agenda was some discussion on the Marina.

It was decided to have the annual Council lobster Dinner on Thursday, June 15 at 6:30.

It was moved by Councilor J. MacKinnon and seconded by Councilor J. Sheppard to adjourn the meeting at 8:30 pm. Yes:6 Nay:0 Motion Carried (369-05-25)
